Health Disparities Reduction and Minority Health Section

‘Applying a Health Equity Framework to the Enhanced CLAS Standards’

April 3-4, 2014 & April 16-17, 2014

The Michigan Department of Community Health (MDCH), Health Disparities Reduction and Minority Health Section (HDRMHS) is pleased to offer a Culturally and Linguistically Appropriate Services (CLAS) workshop entitled ‘Applying a Health Equity Framework to the Enhanced CLAS Standards’ on April 3-4 and April 16-17, 2014.

All participants must complete the registration form and submit it by fax to 313.456.4427 or as an email attachment to hintonj@mlchigan.gov by 5pm, Tuesday, April 1. A confirmation of receipt will be emailed to you within one business day after submission.

Space is limited, therefore, reservations are on a first come basis

The learning objectives for the workshops are:

- Apply a health equity /social justice lens to the implementation of CLAS Standards
- Learn about a framework for cultural competency development and apply it to personal, organizational and community change
- Explore issues of power, oppression, privilege and change at four levels – personal, interpersonal, institutional and cultural
- Explore our identities and memberships in target and non-target groups
- Explore transition from old fashion to modern forms of oppression
- Apply learnings to the implementation of National CLAS Standards
